Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed this book because I love animals and books about animals. The book wasn't boring at all and I really enjoyed reading every minute of it!

Who was your favourite character? Why?

My favourite character was "Big Ginge," the kitten. He was always more playful than the other kittens, and he was really clumsy and funny!

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

I would definitely read another book by the same author, I really enjoyed this book and want to read more stories like this one.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

Yes, most of my friends like animals too, so I think they would enjoy this book just as much as I did.

Rating: How many "books" out of 5 would you give it?
