When Elliot and Wendy go on a road trip with their parents they crash and the children end up in a sports camp called Camp Jellyjam. Spooky things happen and Wendy goes to investigate and she finds an evil monster forced to make jellyjam. She kills it and manages to escape with her brother, Elliot.

Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed it because it kept me gripping to the book and it was hard to stop reading! There were a lot of cliff hangers which I love when reading a book. There wasn't a disappointing ending either which was good.

Who was your favourite character? Why?

My favourite character was Wendy because she never gave up when she was trying to find out the mystery and she could stand up for herself, which shows she's a strong person.

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

I would definitely read another book by R.L Stine because he never drags the story on and he keeps you wanting to read more. R.L Stine writes his book in a way that you can picture everything perfectly and know the characters personalities as soon as they are introduced.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

I would definitely recommend this book to a friend because you never get bored of the story and everything's such a surprise.

Rating: How many "books" out of 5 would you give it?
