Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed this book because I could see some similarities between myself and the characters in the book. This book was also tense and because of this it was hard to put the book down.

Who was your favourite character? Why?

My favourite character was Ellie because she is artistic, caring and is easy to feel a bit of sympathy for due to the fact she has no mum.

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

I would definitely read another book by Jacqueline Wilson because the book was gripping. I would also read another book of hers because of the personalities she gives her characters.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

Yes I would definitely recommend this book.

Rating: How many "books" out of 5 would you give it?
