Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows so much because of the suspense and the way it's all revealed at the very end. Also the terrific details sketch an image into your brain and so do the magnificent, magical inventions. J.K. Rowling is such a brilliant author and has such a fantastic imagination that it's hard to stop reading once you've started!

Who was your favourite character? Why?

Voldemort was my favourite character in the book. He's the baddie of the book and it stood out. I've always liked the bad guys better in the books and it's the outstanding details that really make a picture form in your head.

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

I would most definitely read more books by J.K Rowling. I love the way she writes her stories.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

I would recommend the book to all ages. It's written in such a way both adults and children alike would enjoy this book as long as they know the story of Harry Potter.

Rating: How many "books" out of 5 would you give it?
