Title: The Mum Minder

Author: Jacqueline Wilson

Genre: Comedy

Name of reviewer: Millie Keenan

Plot summary (50 words):

The Mum Minder is a hilarious and entertaining book about a girl called Sadie whose mum is a child-minder. She often helps her mum out, but things go wrong when her mum gets ill and Sadie has to be a mum-minder and a stand in child-minder for the week. Will Sadie be able to cope with three children and a sick mum on her hands? Find out in The Mum Minder.

Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed this book because it's funny and I really enjoyed all the trouble the three children get into. I also enjoyed how stressed the parents get when it's their turn to watch the children at their work.

Who was your favourite character? Why?

My favourite character was Sadie because she is the main character and she is very lively and full of fun but when it comes down to things she can be very serious and strict.

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

I loved The Mum Minder and I've actually read 23 other Jacqueline Wilson books before the mum minder, but I'm definitely going to keep reading her books. I think one of the reasons I love her books is that she puts a lot of description into all her characters.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

I would definitely recommend this book to a friend.
