

Title: Buried Alive

Author: Jacqueline Wilson

Genre: Adventure

Name of Reviewer: Rebecca Geddes

Plot summary (50 words):

Tim usually spends his summer trip to Wales with his parents but this time they are accompanied by Biscuits, Tim's all-time best friend. While they are there Tim's girlfriend, Kelly, is there with her parents too. They soon realise that the holiday was not what they bargained for. They soon come across some threatening bullies. They decide to take Biscuits favourite teddy and throw him over the pier and as Biscuits tries to get it back, Tim has to take drastic action to save him before it's too late. They meet them again on the beach as they threaten Biscuits away and it's only Tim against them. As Biscuits goes to look for help, it's too late; Tim is already buried up to his neck in sand. As Biscuits reappears he crumbles the sand on the edge of the cliff and it lands on the bullies, crashing them to the ground. As they get Tim to safety, he helps rescue the bullies. It turns out that Tim is a real hero.

Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed this book because it shows you that nothing can break their friendship no matter how threatening it is.

Who was your favourite character? Why?

My favourite character was Tim because he tries so hard to help others that need it, especially people in danger.

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

I would definitely read another book by Jacqueline Wilson because all her books are adventurous and exciting.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

I would recommend this book to someone who likes adventure and strong friendships and exciting books.

Rating: How many “books” out of 5 would you give it?

