

Title: The Midnight Fox

Author: Betsy Byars

Genre: Adventure

Name of reviewer: Ryan Duff

Plot summary (50 words):

Tom is a boy who likes Air-fix models and loves playing with his best friend Petie Burkis.

But when he had to go to his aunt and uncle's farm he'll have to leave that all behind for one summer – and he's not happy about it!

Although, when he's there, he spots a black fox in the forest and falls in love with it (not literally). But when the fox steals one of aunt's turkeys his uncle has to kill it by stealing her cub and trying to lure it into his trap – will the fox's cub escape back to its mother or will it lose its life?

Why did you enjoy it?

I enjoyed it because the story was great, some bits were very humorous but some were also very touching.

Who was your favourite character? Why?

My favourite character was Petie Burkis even though we don't hear a lot about him – what we do hear is very funny.

Would you read another book by the same author? Why?

Yes I would. I have seen a few other titles of her books and I would definitely read another one.

Would you recommend your book to a friend?

I would recommend this book to someone who likes animal stories and adventure.

Rating: How many “books” out of 5 would you give it?
