Plot summary (50 words):

This book is about three girls called Ellie, Nadine and Magda. When the girls go out shopping for Christmas presents, a magazine are looking for models. Magda and Nadine really want to go and get some pictures taken by them but Ellie doesn't want to go because she thinks she is fat! One girl calls her fat when she is in the line for the pictures so she runs off. She decides to go on a diet but she struggles to stick to it. She has a midnight feast and feels horrible after, so she makes herself sick, but then she can't stop. Her Dad and step-mum become worried when she becomes really thin! When Ellie meets an old friend who is anorexic she realises she is making a mistake so she tries to stop. Her friendship with Nadine and Magda is struggling so they have to try and help each other through some hard times.
